STEP 3: Additional Requirements

1. Proof of tribal membership(i.e. tribal card or similar documentation from the tribe) or proof of descendency from the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) or tribe or nation(i.e. Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood [CDIB]).
2. The institution must have a FAFSA on file for the academic year for which the fee waiver is desired. If the student has filed a FAFSA and the current institution has not received the student’s data, the student may need to make a correction to add that institution to their FAFSA. Check with the institution’s Financial Aid Office to confirm or for assistance.
3. Establish proof of residing in Nevada (check one):

Currently attending an NSHE institution as a resident for tuition purposes (institution will verify residency in Nevada for at least one year and request documentation only if necessary) (Handbook, Title 4, Chapter 15, Sections 3 & 4); or

Institution verification of eligibility for the Millennium Scholarship which requires residency in Nevada for 2 years of high school, meeting the fee waiver’s requirement for residency (Handbook, Title 4, Chapter 17, Section 9.1.1);or Residency documentation establishing residency in Nevada for at least one year immediately prior to the receipt of the waiver (e.g. Nevada driver’s license, Nevada identification card, Nevada vehicle registration, Nevada voter registration, home ownership, lease agreement, rent receipts, utility bills, paycheck stubs, bank statements, federal tax return, or other documentation as accepted by the institution).

For students who cannot check one of the above options regarding proof of residency, attach the NSHE Native American Fee Waiver Residency Affidavit which can be obtained from an NSHE institution.
